CONSULTANTS

Current as at 2017/09/24

1. Overview and purpose

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants respects your rights to privacy and takes our privacy obligations seriously. We comply with:

- the Australian Privacy Principles, found under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) 'Privacy Act'
- the Information Privacy Act 2009 (QLD) (IP Act)

When you first register as a patient, our new patient registration form requests your consent so that we can collect, use, hold and share your personal information in order to provide you with the best possible healthcare and to allow us to manage our practice. If we intend to use your personal information for any other purpose, we will seek your consent first.

This privacy policy explains:

- how we manage your personal information (including your health information), including the collection, use, disclosure, quality and security of your personal information.
- the kinds of information we collect and how that information is held;
- the purposes for which we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information;
- how you can access your personal information and how you can request to correct such information; and
- how you can complain about a breach of your privacy and how we will handle your complaint.

If you have any queries, concerns or feedback regarding our Privacy Policy, please do not hesitate to contact us using the following details:

Practice Manager

In this Privacy Policy, we use the terms:

"personal information" as defined in the Privacy Act. This means: "information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- whether the information or opinion is true or not; and
- whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not";

"Health information" as defined in the Privacy Act. This is a subset of "personal information" and means information or an opinion about:

- the health or a disability (at any time) of an individual;
- an individual's expressed wishes about the future provision of health services to him or her; or
- a health service provided or to be provided to an individual.

Personal information also includes "sensitive information" which is information such as your race, religion, political opinions, sexual preferences and/or "health information". Information which is “sensitive information” attracts a higher privacy standard under the Privacy Act and is subject to additional mechanisms for your protection.

We, Us, Our, shall mean:

1. Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants
2. Employed, contracted, and independent medical and healthcare practitioners who practice from our rooms

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants is a medical services business. We provide management, administrative, facilities and support services to independent medical/healthcare practitioners who run their own independent business from our practice. These practitioners have agreed to fall under and abide by our Privacy Policy and framework.

2. Collection of personal information

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants collects information which is necessary to provide you with healthcare services and to appropriately manage and conduct our business. This includes collecting personal information and such as your name and contact details, medical history, family history, past and current treatments, lifestyle factors, and any other information which is necessary to assist us in providing you appropriate care. We will also collect your Medicare number, Commonwealth Concession Card number, Department of Veterans Affairs, and health fund details (where applicable).

You have the right to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym unless it is impracticable for us to do so or unless we are required or authorised by law to only deal with identified individuals. It is important to be aware that if you provide incomplete or inaccurate information or withhold information we may not be able to provide you with the appropriate treatment.

Patients wishing to claim from Medicare will need to provide us with their full name, date of birth, current address and Medicare card details or their Individual Health Identifier (IHI). Patients using an IHI only need to provide this to us.

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants will usually collect your personal information directly from you, including from patient consent forms, medical records, and consultations with you, or from another health service provider. Sometimes we need to collect information about you from third parties, such as relatives and friends and private health insurers.

We will only collect information from third parties where:

- you have consented to such collection; or
- such collection is necessary to enable us to provide you with appropriate healthcare services (such as emergency medical treatment or where your health is at risk);
- such collection is reasonably necessary to enable us to appropriately manage and conduct our business; or
- it is legally permissible for us to do.

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants outsources to third party suppliers the collection of your personal information. These suppliers include:

- First Available Online Appointment Booking (Clinic Connect)

3. How we use your personal information

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants only uses your personal information to provide you with healthcare services or to enable us to appropriately manage and conduct our business, unless:

- there is a secondary purpose which directly relates to the primary purpose, and you would reasonably expect, or Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants has informed you, that your information will be used for that secondary purpose, or you have given your consent for your personal information to be used for a secondary purpose;
- the disclosure of your information is necessary for the enforcement of criminal law or a law imposing a penalty or sanction, or for the protection of public revenue;
- the disclosure of your information will prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to somebody's life or health; or,
- Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants is required or authorized by law to disclose your information for another purpose.

For example, Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants uses your personal information:

- to provide healthcare services to you;
- to appropriately manage our practice, such as conducting audits and undertaking accreditation processes, manage billings, and training staff;
- effectively communicate with third parties, including private health insurers, Medicare Australia and other government departments, and other specialists involved in your care.

4. Disclosing your personal information

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants may disclose your personal information to our employees, contractors and service providers in order for us to provide healthcare services to you and to allow us to manage our business. We will also disclose your personal information to healthcare professionals directly involved in your treatment. Where your medical records are required in the case of a medical emergency, we will provide these to the relevant medical professional without waiting for your consent, where we believe this is in your interests.

Your personal information may also be provided to third parties if we are legally obliged to do so by a court subpoena, statutory authority, search warrant, coronial summons, or to defend a legal action.

We may provide your personal information to third parties involved in your care, such as:

- your parents, children, relatives and close friends, guardians, or a person exercising a power of attorney or enduring power of attorney. Please advise us if it is your wish no third party as stated is to have access to your personal information;
- government departments and agencies, such as Defense or Department of Veterans Affairs, or departments responsible for health, aged care and disability where we are required to do so;
- private health insurers and Medicare Australia;
- anyone authorized by you to receive your personal information

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants engages the following third party service providers (and others as required) who assist us in delivering our services to you:

- Best Practice (VIP.net)
- Vibe Group IT, Web Injection
- Device Technologies, Heidelberg Engineering
- Medical Objects, GoFax

5. Overseas recipients

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants does not routinely engage with any overseas entities or persons where your personal information will be transferred, stored or disclosed. Your information would only be transferred to an overseas entity should it be relevant and beneficial to the care we provide you and other patients.

6. Data storage, quality, and security

We strive to maintain the reliability, accuracy, completeness, and currency of the personal information we hold and to protect its privacy and security. All personal information, whether stored as a hard copy or in electronic form is protected from unauthorized access, misuse, interference, loss, modification, or disclosure. Some of the steps we take to ensure your personal information is secure include:

- we maintain physical security over our paper and electronic data and premises
- our staff are trained on privacy
- we have detailed internal processes and systems to protect your privacy
- electronic security over electronic data include virus controls, firewalls, data encryption, user identifiers and passwords to control access to computer systems where your information is stored, and other IT security measures
- we have a 'clean desk' policy
- electronic data hosting is performed in Australia and is encrypted; this includes offsite backups
- administrative and reception areas within the practice are not readily accessible to patients
- paper records no longer required are destroyed using a cross-cut shredder
- we undertake periodic reviews of our risk management processes to protect privacy

Our website and email is linked to the internet. No data transfer over the internet is 100% secure. Accordingly, any information which you transmit to us online or via email is transmitted at your own risk.

7. Destroying your personal information

Subject to applicable laws, Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants may destroy records containing personal information when the record is no longer required by Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants.

It is likely your medical records held by us contain sensitive information. We are required to abide by relevant legislation in the retention and disposal of your medical records.

Toowoomba Ophthalmic Consultants uses an electronic patient administration system. When hard copy documents are generated during a patient's care, they are scanned into the electronic patient administration system and then the original hard copy is securely destroyed. All hard copy documents are shredded on a weekly basis using a cross-cut shredder. No hard copy patient records are routinely kept beyond one week. Should electronic records require destruction then this is handled by a professional IT company.

8. Accessing and amending your personal information

We encourage you to contact us if you have a query regarding your personal information. You may request an amendment to your personal information if you consider that it contains inaccurate, incorrect or incomplete information.

You have a right to request access to any information we hold about you. If you make a request to access personal information that you are entitled to access, we will provide you suitable means of accessing it. We will not charge you for making the request. In circumstances where you request we provide a copy of your personal information to you, we may charge you a fee to cover our reasonable costs for complying with the request for access.

There may be instances where we cannot grant you access to some of the information we hold. For example, we may need to refuse access if granting access would interfere with the privacy of others. If that is the case, we will provide you with a written explanation of those reasons.
